ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or irregular Vision is one of the most common of all eye defects known. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent Eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that no other instrument can. Get medical attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSTON put them under this wonderful treatment. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30, 2 to 6. 302 S. Elm St.

W. C. T. U. STATE CONVENTION.
Large Crowds and Most Interesting Proceedings.

As was expected, the annual recitation contest at the W. C. T. U. state convention Saturday night drew an enormous crowd, and though chairs were provided wherever possible, Grace church could not accommodate all the applicants for seats, and many could not get in. The exercises opened with a beautiful marching song by about 35 children, followed by the state and national mottoes. The audience then joined in the singing of "America." Miss Ufford read the scripture lesson and "Salvoes Must Go" was sung by the children, after which a duet—"The Earthen Vessel"—was sung.

The recitation contest was close and interesting. All the young ladies rendered their respective pieces exceedingly well and the large audience paid the strictest attention. The following pieces were rendered by the young ladies whose names follow in their respective places:

The Converted Rum-seller—Mamie Holt.

Farmer Dean's Decision—Kate Pugh.

The Drunkard's Dream—May Bain.

The Teetotaller's Story—Nellie Glasscock.

The Martyred Mother—Lizzie Harrell.

Two Glasses—Emma Sharpe.

Between the third and fourth recitations a flag song and the rally cry of the North Carolina Loyal Temperance Legion were rendered by the children and after the last recitation the "White Ribbon Star Spangled Banner" was sung by the choir.

The decision of the judges was then announced and Mrs. Cozart, of Winston, delivered the medal to Miss Kate Pugh, the successful contestant.

A number of stereopticons views were then presented by Rev. T. M. Johnson, showing the Crusade Church and many who took part in the memorable events of that period. Views of Miss Willard, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens and Lady Henry Sommersett were also presented and elicited much applause. Lady Henry Sommersett is the world's president of the W. C. T. U. She is next to the richest woman in England and is devoting her large means to helping humanity.

YESTERDAY'S MEETINGS.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock Rev. Mead A. Kelsey, of High Point, preached the annual sermon, taking for his theme, "The Women of the Bible," and for his text, "O, woman, great is thy faith."

Last night, Rev. A. D. Thaeler, pastor of Calvary Moravian church, Winston, and president of the Christian Endeavor Society in North Carolina, preached to the congregation in Grace church. His text was, "Ye which are spiritual restore such an 'one'."

Both the sermons were fitted for the occasion and were filled with wholesome, helpful advice for the W. C. T. U. They were among the ablest ever preached in Greensboro and will bring forth good fruit.

The Monday morning session of the convention was called to order at 8:45 o'clock. Mrs. E. H. Billingsley, of Statesville, conducted the devotional exercises. After the reading of the department reports the election of officers for the ensuing year was held at this meeting and all the old officers were re-elected. The list of officers is as follows:

NINE INSURGENTS ARE KILLED
By the American Artillery For Firing Upon Our Tin-Clad Army Gunboats.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, June 5.—Two battalions of Washington troops, under Col. Whaley, were towed from Pasig to Manila yesterday. They landed under cover of a well directed fire from the tin-clad army gunboats Napidan and Cavadonga. The rebels, who were entrenched in the outskirts of the town, reserved their fire until the troops were well ashore in the open. The American artillery opened fire upon the insurgents and drove them from their position, killing and wounding five. The Washingtons then took the town, the rebels fleeing to the hills. While the Americans were on the way to Marong the insurgents opened fire from the shore batteries at Ancon, the first shot striking the Cavadonga's awning aft, at a range of thirty-five hundred yards. The Napidan was also fired at.

THE ARMY'S TRIALS.

Manila, June 5.—Several escaped of insurgents through the lines during the night are reported. The unevenness of the country prevents the maintenance of a complete cordon of troops between Mateo and Hailey. The wires have been cut continually and finally abandoned. Communication is kept up via Pasig. The roughest country traversed by the Americans is in the vicinity of Antifola. Transportation over it is impossible, and even the signal service wagons have been abandoned. Five Chinamen deserted the signal service yesterday, remaining over, unable to carry the wires. Sergeant Wodak, with a wire-repairing party, were cut off behind the lines. Lieutenant Gibbs, with a handful of men, rushed to Wadok's rescue and routed the enemy who opposed his return. First Lieutenant Hawthorne of Battery E, First artillery, unable to proceed owing to the impassable condition of the country, was compelled to burn his wagon and artillery and ammunition to prevent its falling into the hands of the enemy. Fighting is lively all along the line.

PRESIDENT LOUBET'S DANGERS.

"I Shall Pursue My Mission to the End"—Flanigan Arrested.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, June 5.—The newspapers this morning praise President Loubet for his calmness throughout the demonstration yesterday. Replying to the stewards of the Auteville races, the President remarked: "You are in no way responsible, and to prove that I have no anger for you, if the races should occur tomorrow, I would attend them. I am invited to attend the grand prix Sunday next. You may be sure I shall be present." On the return to Elysee, President Loubet said to those who accompanied him: "All my family were opposed to my becoming President. I had no desire to remain at Elysee, but now that it is dangerous to be chief of state, my duty is clear and I shall let my enemies be convinced that I shall pursue my mission to the end."

Both the sermons were fitted for the occasion and were filled with wholesome, helpful advice for the W. C. T. U. They were among the ablest ever preached in Greensboro and will bring forth good fruit.

Mr. John Lewis yesterday found it necessary to shoot his fine cow. On last Thursday the animal ate a quantity of paint and since that he had eaten no food. Yesterday morning she grew worse, and seeing that she could not live, Mr. Lewis shot her to end her suffering.

Miss Bessie Langhorne left at noon today for Lynchburg, Va., where the family will reside in the future, and to which place the rest of the family went last week. Greensboro regrets to lose such young ladies as the Misses Langhorne, and hopes that they may visit here long and often.

Capt. Cal Donnell, the popular excursion conductor on the Atlantic & Yadkin for the past several seasons, left today at noon for Fayetteville to accompany his family here, where, we are pleased to learn, they will make their home. Capt. Donnell will continue in the service of the A. & Y. division of the Southern, with headquarters here.

William Haskins & Lou Lindsay, both colored, had a fight on Cotton Row Saturday night, and the police say that Haskins knocked Lou's blind eye from its socket. Lou denies anything of the kind however, and without her complaint, it is probable that no arrests will be made. The woman who was blind in one eye is well known in police circles.

Mr. Ralph Bingham.

If any one had entertained the idea that Ralph Bingham is a dry lecturer, he is very much mistaken. He is one of the finest musicians, a superb monologist, a side-splitting humorist, and a delightful entertainer all round. He makes you laugh and weep, and nobody ever experienced a dull moment when he was before the footlights.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Central M. E. Church have secured him to appear at the Academy of Music on Thursday night, June 15. The event is sure to be a success.

Fire in Reidsville.

Angel's bar in Reidsville was destroyed by fire last night. The fire was discovered about 2 o'clock and the alarm was given at once, but, though the firemen responded immediately and did good work, the flames had gained too much headway to be stopped. The building and those adjoining were of brick and but for this the flames could not have been confined to one store.

PROF. BROGDEN HONORED.
Elected Superintendent of Kinston's New Graded School.

The many friends and admirers in this city, of Prof. L. C. Brodgen, formerly an instructor in the Lindsay Street Graded School, will be pleased to learn of his continued success as an educator, in eastern North Carolina. He was last week elected superintendent of the Kinston Graded School and, though there were eight applicants for the position, his election was unanimous. In the campaign previous to the recent municipal election at Kinston, Prof. Brodgen was the leader in the graded school movement and on election day 425 voted for, and 6 against the school.

Prof. Brodgen, who is a native of Goldsboro, is yet quite a young man, but, knowing him as I do, I feel that Kinston, as well as he, is to be congratulated. May he continue to rise in his profession.

Hour Changed.

At a meeting of the teachers of Centenary Sunday School, held yesterday, it was decided to change the hour for the school from 3 o'clock p.m. to 9:45 a.m. It is thought that more good can be accomplished by having the school in the morning, even though the attendance is smaller, and the new hour is considered more convenient for the majority of those concerned.
